

081121-N-7590D-009 HONOLULU, HAWAII (November 21, 2008)- Honolulu City and County Mayor, Mufi Hannemann (center), presented the 2008 Hawaii's Outstanding Military Spouse Awards to eight selected spouses that functioned as the volunteer family communication and organizational focal points for their spouses command. The Eight Spouses received certificates from Mayor Hannemann, and the State Legislature and a check for $1000.00 from the Navy League of the United States - Honolulu Council and Oceanic Cable during a ceremony at City Hall on Nov. 21, 2008. U.S. Navy Photo by Chief Mass Communication Specialist Keith W. DeVinney (Released)

081121-N-7590D-010 HONOLULU, HAWAII (November 21, 2008)- Honolulu City and County Mayor, Mufi Hannemann, presented the 2008 Hawaii's Outstanding Military Spouse Awards to eight selected spouses that functioned as the volunteer family communication and organizational focal points for their spouses command. Special Operations Command Pacific (SOCPAC) spouse, Gayla Hammerstrom was one of the award recipients that received certificates from Mayor Hannemann, and the State Legislature and a check for $1000.00 from the Navy League of the United States - Honolulu Council and Oceanic Cable.

Pictured (left to right) Mike and Gayla Hammerstrom with their twins, Mayor Mufi Hannemann, Mrs. Jana Cambria, (spouse to Commanding General of SOCPAC), Col Jeffrey White (Deputy Commanding Officer of SOCPAC) and Sgt Major Jeffrey Gray U.S. Navy Photo by Chief Mass Communication Specialist Keith W. DeVinney (Released)

